AUSTRIA FACTS

The Austrian flag is one of the oldest national flags in the world. It dates from 1191, when Duke Leopold V fought in the Battle of Acre during the Third Crusade.

62% of Austria's total land area is covered by the Alps. It has 13 peaks above 3,000 metres, and 34 above 2,000 metres.

Vienna's Central Cemetry has over 2.5 million tombs – including those of Beethoven, Brahms, Schubert and Strauss – more than the city's present population.

Yodelling has been measured at 92 decibels. A Formula 1 car peaks at 140 decibels..

Jean-Pierre Jabouille claimed his second victory for Renault in the 1980 Austrian Grand Prix. The turbocharged Renaults had dominated qualifying, with both Jabouille and team-mate Rene Arnoux starting on the front row. Jabouille took the lead when Arnoux' tyres started to heavily degrade and held on to win by just a couple of seconds over Alan Jones.
